Homeseekers and Stock Raisers

Stop and Consider.

These bargains in tame-grass, cut-over and hardwood timber land:

I still have left out of my 9,000-acre tract, about 5,000 acres which I offer at $8.50 per acre in tracts of from 360 to 1,217 acres, and in 40, 80, and 160 at from $10.00 to $14.00 per acre, according to location.

All my land is of a rich clay loam and well watered in every respect, and strictly speaking, not stony, and I challenge any country to produce the tame grasses and quality of spring water found in the vicinity of Haugen and Sarona, in Barron and Washburn Counties, Wis., on the main line of the Omaha railroad, not to exceed one-half to three and one-half miles from depot facilities.

Here is where wheat, corn, oats, rye and other grains are produced in abundance and where the root crop cannot be surpassed, with a ready home market for all farm produce.

You cannot afford to let these bargains pass by without making some investigation. Write at once to Entered according to Act of Congress in the year 1905, by R. L. POLK & CO., in the office of the Librarian of Congress, at Washington, D. C.

INTRODUCTORY.

Polk's Wisconsin Gazetteer, now in its 25th year of publication, presents a complete and practical storehouse of information concerning the industries and business men of the State, and is arranged in a manner most conveniently adapted for continual and instant consultation. The compilation has been confined to authenticated data prepared in every part from late and original sources and the general plan of the work is similar to that of previous issues. The first 110 pages contain a vast amount of miscellaneous matter pertaining to Wisconsin and brought down to date. This portion of the Gazetteer includes a descriptive sketch of the State by Reuben G. Thwaites, Secretary and Superintendent of the State Historical Society of Wisconsin, State Government, the State Judiciary, United States Courts in Wisconsin, State Institutions, State Associations, State Boards, Governors of Wisconsin, list of County Seats and County Officers, a Bankers' Directory of the State, Statutory Provisions in Wisconsin, Population of Incorporated Cities and Villages, and Counties according to the U. S. Census, Railroads and Express Companies, etc.

This is followed by the Gazetteer portion (pages 121 to 1289), in which a descriptive sketch is given of each of the cities, towns, villages, railroad stations, postoffices and settlements, embracing items of interest to every business man, such as location, population, distance to different points, most convenient shipping stations, products that are marketed, bank location, price of land, etc. Mention is also made of churches, schools, libraries and societies, and it is the only publication giving name of postmaster of each place. Each of these sketches is followed by the names of all business and professional men located there, as well as those in the adjoining country for whom it is the postoffice.

Succeeding this (pages 1291 to 1878) is the Classified Business Directory, wherein each business pursuit or profession is classified under its respective heading and arranged in alphabetical order by postoffices. The ease with which information on any subject in this department of the book can be obtained makes it invaluable for reference.

The publishers in conclusion take occasion to express their appreciation of the liberality of their patrons and to thank them for it; also to thank state and county officers and others for their prompt and satisfactory replies to inquiries for information.

The Gazetteer is committed to the public with a warm sentiment regarding the State whose many interests it is intended to exhibit and an earnest hope that the wealth, prosperity and fame of Wisconsin may furnish material for a greater and increasing record with each succeeding year.

WISCONSIN.

(By Reuben G. Thwaites, Secretary and Superintendent of State Historical Society of Wisconsin.)

Wisconsin is situated at the head of the chain of Great Lakes. It is touched on the east by Lake Michigan, on the north by Lake Superior, on the west by the Mississippi, and is drained by interlacing rivers whose headwaters so closely approach each other that the canoe voyager can with ease pass from one great water system to the other. He can enter the continent at the Gulf of St. Lawrence and, by means of numerous short and easy portages in Wisconsin, emerge into the south-flowing Mississippi and eventually return to the Atlantic through the Gulf of Mexico; or he can, by way of the Mississippi, the Missouri, and the Columbia, reach the Pacific Ocean, as did Ramsay Crooks on the famous Astoria expedition of 1809. From Lake Michigan, the Fox-Wisconsin river system was, in the days of the fur trade, the most popular highway to the great river. Into Lake Superior there flow numerous streams, from whose sources lead short portage trails over to the headwaters or feeders of the Mississippi. In their early voyages to the head of lake navigation, it was in the course of nature that the French should discover Wisconsin; and having discovered it, soon learn that it was the key-point of the Northwest, and the gateway to the mysterious "River of the Southern Sea." Thus the geographical character of Wisconsin became, very early in the history of New France, an important factor.

In 1634, Champlain, then governor of New France, sent Jean Nicolet, a coureur de bois, into the then mysterious region of the Upper Lakes, to make treaties with the northwestern tribes, and induce them to trade with the French of Lower Canada. He ascended the Fox river as far as the present city of Berlin, then proceeded southward, overland, to Illinois, and reached Lake Michigan on his way home, probably by the Chicago portage. In 1655, Radisson and Groseilliers, two French fur traders, visited Green Bay and went up Fox river, and, it is possible, descended the Wisconsin and saw the Mississippi. In 1659 they were back again in Wisconsin and built a stockade on the southwest shore of Chequamegon Bay, near where Ashland now is. In 1665, Father Allouez established a Jesuit mission at La Pointe, on Chequamegon Bay, near the fort of Radisson and Groseilliers, on the main land. It was not until the present century that the Catholic mission of La Pointe was removed to Madelaine Island. Two years later, the Jesuit mission of St. Francis Xavier was planted by Allouez at the First rapids in the Fox river, thus laying the foundation of the present De Pere (formerly Rapids des Peres). The Green Bay (or Bay des Puans), outpost of the seventeenth century, was not on the present site of that city, but at De Pere. The place became an important headquarters for the fur trade, although it was about 1750 before permanent settlement was established at the Green Bay of today—the Langlades being the pioneers. Joliet and Marquette passed De Pere in 1673, on their way up the Fox and down the Wisconsin, to explore the Mississippi. The following year Marquette coasted Lake Michigan, from Green Bay by Milwaukee, to the Chicago portage. A similar trip was made by La Salle in 1679, and it was among the islands of Green Bay that his vessel, the Griffin, was lost in a storm. The following year Du Luth (from whom the modern Duluth was named), a famous French trader, voyaged from Lake Superior to the Mississippi river, by ascending the Bois Brule and portaging over to and descending the St. Croix. Father Hennepin had, the same year, ascended the Mississippi as far as the site of Minneapolis, and on falling in with Du Luth, returned with him by the Wisconsin and Fox rivers, to Green Bay. In 1685, Nicholas Perrot, a fur trader, who had been at Green Bay as early as 1669, was appointed French "Commandant of the West," and built a stockade fort for the protection of his forest trade, on the Wisconsin side of the Mississippi, a mile above Trempealeau. In 1698 and later, Perrot established forts on Lake Pepin and at the mouth of the Wisconsin river, at Prairie du Chien. In 1692 Le Seuer, another famous fur-trade adventurer, built a stockade at La Pointe, and also fortified an island in the Upper Mississippi, near Red Wing, so as to protect both ends of Du Luth's old trade route. The Jesuit missions at Chequamegon Bay, of Lake Superior and Green Bay, Lake Michigan, soon played a prominent part in the history of American exploration; thus, two and a half centuries ago, when the Puritan colonies on Massachusetts Bay were yet in their infancy, and long before the intervening country had been visited, the general geographical features of Wisconsin and the route thither were familiar to the French rulers at Quebec.

Wisconsin was notable, too, in those early days, as a hiding place for tribes of Algonkins, who had been driven beyond Lake Michigan before the resistless onslaught of the Iroquois. The latter, however, sometimes ventured into these forest fastnesses and massacred the fugitives. The country was, for a century and a half, the happy hunting grounds for the easy-going French—licensed traders and coureurs de bois as well—and in the French and Indian war it was a favorite recruiting field for those disciplined bands of redskins who periodically broke forth upon the borders, filling the life of American pioneers with scenes of horror. Langlade, a Wisconsin leader of these savage allies, is accredited as having caught Braddock in his slaughter pen (July 9, 1755), and his swarthy followers bore away to the trans-Michigan woods a goodly share of the scalps and spoils won on that fateful day.

When New France fell, in 1763, Wisconsin—now made by George III. a part of the Province of Quebec—remained essentially French. The flag of England waved for a time over a rude military stockade at Green Bay, but the woods were filled with French and Indians, in all grades of blood relationship, who had transferred their allegiance to the conqueror. French and half-bloods, throughout the War of the Revolution, wore the scarlet uniforms of His Majesty's army.

Although the Northwest was given to the United States in the treaty of 1783, the English were practically in military possession of Wisconsin until the close of the war of 1812-15. It was nominally in the Northwest Territory until 1800; then a part of Indiana Territory until 1809. Illinois military possession of Wisconsin until 1818, when Michigan Territory assumed control. When Wisconsin Territory came into being in 1836, it included also Iowa, Minnesota, and Dakota east of the Missouri and White Earth rivers. Parts of this domain were ceded to Iowa in 1838, and to Minnesota in 1848. Early in the present century Congress excluded the British traders, and, to protect the agents of the American Fur Company, erected Fort Howard, opposite the French and Indian village of Green Bay, and Fort Crawford at the fur-trading post of Prairie du Chien.

Up to this time the French and half-bloods still held Wisconsin woods and streams, and their fur trade was the chief industry. Little by little this French predominance was undermined, at first by the advent of Americans into the lead mines (1827), and then by agricultural settlers. The Black Hawk war (1832), wherein the Sacs and Foxes were cowed, was an important factor in the opening of the region to public view. American settlement and development along American lines now began in earnest. The fur trade ceased to be of importance, the non-progressive French element subsided into insignificance, immigrants from the east were attracted by cheap lands on easy terms, and thenceforth Wisconsin was an American territory, which rapidly grew into a powerful and patriotic State. Racine was founded in 1834, Sheboygan in 1834, Kenosha in 1835, Milwaukee, Janesville and Oshkosh in 1836, Madison in 1837, Whitewater in 1839, La Crosse in 1840, Stevens Point in 1843, and Appleton in 1848.

In modern days the State has advanced uninterruptedly in peaceful and profitable industries, growing into a great and powerful commonwealth, whose public institutions are models of their kind, and whose educational interests are exceptionally well developed. The war of secession drew from the farms and cities of Wisconsin an army of over 90,000 men for the defense of the Republic. Three-fourths of the people are either of foreign birth or parentage, 31 per cent being of foreign birth. Among the foreign born there are 276,078 Teutons, 107,011 Scandinavians, 28,269 Anglo-Saxons, 25,902 Irish, 6,129 Slavs, and 3,415 Graeco-Latins. There are large areas in the State, wholly populated by foreigners—the most important groups being German, Scandinavian, Welsh, Swiss and Belgian. It seems likely that the German-Scandinavian type will predominate here, making a fair and stalwart race. Although possessing this unusual preponderance of the European element, Wisconsin does not differ ethically from her sister States of the northwest, because the immigrants are in most ways thoroughly Americanized, making good citizens, and intelligent voters, as in the war of secession they made patriotic soldiers.

WISCONSIN COLLECTION AND ASSIGNMENT LAWS, ETC.

Acknowledgments—Deeds executed within this state—of lands or any interest in lands therein—must be executed in the presence of two witnesses, who shall subscribe their names to the same as such and the persons executing must acknowledge the execution before any judge or clerk of a court of record, court commissioner, U. S. commissioner, county clerk, register of deeds, notary public or justice of the peace; and the officer taking the acknowledgment must indorse a certificate of the acknowledgment and the true date of making it under his hand. A scroll answers for a seal except in the case of a notary public, who must attach his official seal and date of expiration of his commission. Deeds conveying land or any interest in land situated in the State if executed in any other State, Territory or District of the United States may be executed according to the laws of such place and the acknowledgment may be before any judge or clerk of a court of record, notary public (with seal and expiration of commission), justice of the peace, master in chancery, or other officer there authorized by law to take the acknowledgment of deeds therein, or before a commissioner appointed by the Governor of this state for such purpose; and if executed within any jurisdiction of any military post of the United States not within this state, before the commanding officer thereof. If such deed be executed in any foreign country, it may be executed according to its laws, and acknowledged before any notary public—with seal affixed—or other officer authorized by law there to take such acknowledgments or any minister, charge d'affaires, commissioner, or consul of the United States appointed to reside therein, and certified by him; and, if executed according to the laws of such foreign country the certificate of acknowledgment shall certify that fact.

Arrest.—Defendant may be arrested and held to bail at the time of issuing the summons or at any time before judgment in an action for damages not arising on contract, when a non-resident or about to remove from the state or in an action for injury to person, property or character; or for injury or wrongfully taking, detaining or converting property; for a fine or penalty; for money embezzled or fraudulently misapplied by a public officer, attorney, agent or an officer of a corporation, or by any person in a fiduciary capacity, or for any misconduct or neglect in office or in a professional employment; in actions to recover damages for property obtained by false pretenses; in actions of replevin when property has been concealed.

Assignments. — Voluntary assignments may be made by debtor for benefit of general creditors under statutory formalities. Preferences are not allowed. Release not granted. Any preference made by debtor by the sale of property, mortgage or other security, within sixty days prior to date of assignment shall be void and of no effect, provided the party benefitted had reasonable cause to believe such debtor insolvent, and by confession of judgment within the same period, void absolutely. When any debtor, being insolvent, shall confess judgment or do any act by which one or more of his creditors shall obtain a preference over others, or shall omit to do any act which he might do to prevent such preference; or if he shall not within ten days after any levy by attachment, execution or garnishment, make a voluntary assignment or institute proceedings in good faith to vacate such preference, then, or within thirty days thereafter any two creditors having claims aggregating two hundred dollars or more, may procure the appointment of a receiver who shall convert into money all the property of the debtor not by law exempt, and distribute the same, free from any liens or preferences obtained contrary to the intent of these provisions, pro rata among all the creditors who shall prove their claims within such time and in such manner as the court shall direct.

Attachment.—May be issued at any time before judgment in all actions on contract, express or implied, where plaintiff shows by affidavit that fact, and that the debt exceeds $50, and that the affiant has good reason to believe one of the following cases to exist: That defendant has absconded or is about to abscond from the state or is concealed therein to the injury of his creditors; that he has assigned, disposed of or concealed, or is about to conceal any of his property, with intent to defraud his creditors; that he has removed or is about to remove any of his property out of the State, with like intent; that he fraudulently contracted the debt or incurred the obligation for which this action is brought; that he is a non-resident or it is a foreign corporation; that he has fraudulently conveyed or disposed of his property, or part of it, to defraud his creditors. Attachment may also be made for debt to become due on filing similar affidavit, and giving undertaking for three times amount of claim. Aattachment may issue in Justice Court, upon grounds nearly identical where debt exceeds $5.

Bills of Exchange and Promissory Notes.—No person within this State to be charged as acceptor on a bill of exchange unless his acceptance shall be in writing signed by himself or his lawful agent. Days of grace are abolished from and after April 5, 1894. Notes falling due on Sunday or holiday are payable next secular day.

Chattel Mortgages.—Are valid between the parties thereto, but void as against any other persons, unless the possession of the mortgaged property be delivered to and retained by the mortgagee, or unless the mortgage, or a copy thereof, be filed with the clerk of the village, town, or city, where the mortgagee resides, or if he is a non-resident, where the property is situated at the time of making the mortgage. Such chattel mortgage ceases to be valid, except as between the parties, at the expiration of two years, unless within 30 days next preceding the expiration of the two years, the mortgagee or his agent make and annex to the mortgage, or a copy thereof, on file, an affidavit setting forth the interest of the mortgagee in the property mortgaged. The effect of such affidavit renews the force of the mortgage for two years. Similar renewals may be made at the end of each two years. It is a misdemeanor to sell or dispose of chattels mortgaged, with intent to defraud. No specified time in which mortgaged property must be sold to pay debts. Chattel mortgage upon household furniture or exempt chattels of married man invalid without signature of wife witnessed by two witnesses.

Commencement of Suit.—Suits are commenced by service of summons. The defendant in cases in Justice Courts, in ordinary cases, has six days in which to appear in Circuit Courts, twenty days after service within the State; and if not so served and summons is published, six weeks and twenty days.

Consignments.—If the consignee fraudulently converts the consigned property to his own use he is guilty of embezzlement. Six years will bar a criminal prosecution, as well as the consignor's civil action.

Exemptions—Library, household furniture, etc., $200; firearms, $50; necessary team, cattle and utensils; 1 year's provisions; tools or stock in trade of mechanic, miner or other person, $200; library and implements of professional man, $200; printing material, presses, etc., $1,500; homestead in country, 40 acres, or in town plat, one-fourth of an acre. The earnings of all married persons having a family dependent upon them for support, for three months next preceding the issue of any process, to the amount of $60, only for each month in which such earnings are made or secured. No personal property is exempt as against any debt remaining of its purchase price.

Garnishment.—Money or property of the defendant in the hands of another, except a municipal corporation, or debts due him, may be garnisheed either at the time of the bringing of the action or while it is pending, or upon execution after judgment is obtained thereon. In such cases the garnishee debtors are liable for the amount of property in their hands or the amount of indebtedness due from them to the principal debtor, over and above exemptions, from the time garnishee summons is served upon them. Garnishment may also be had in any cause of action in which a writ of attachment may issue. The lien obtained by garnishment is dissolved if the debtor, being insolvent, within ten days after the service of process make a voluntary assignment, or if within the same time or thirty days thereafter, a receiver is appointed.

Interest.—Legal, 6 per cent; by contract in writing, 10. Usury (except in bottomry and respondentia bonds) forfeits all interest if not yet paid; if paid, treble the unlawful excess may be recovered by suit within a year.

Judgments.—Judgments of the Circuit Court become a lien on all real estate of the judgment debtor within the county, and from the date of its being docketed in the clerk's office; this lien holds for ten years. A transcript of the judgment of a justice of the peace may be docketed in the circuit court clerk's office, and becomes then a lien on real estate, and is regarded as a circuit court judgment for its enforcement and collection. A transcript of the docket of the judgment in any circuit court clerk's office may be filed and docketed in any other county, and becomes a lien on all real estate of the judgment debtor in any county where docketed, from that date, and is enforced by execution issued from the county where judgment was rendered.

Justice's Jurisdiction.—$200, may enter judgment by confession to $300.

Limitation of Actions.—On contracts not under seal, 6 years; judgments of courts within the State and on sealed instrumnts, cause accruing within the State, 20 years; foreign judgments and specialties, cause accruing without the State, 10 years; recovery of bonds, 20 years.

Married women retain all property for their exclusive use and benefit, which is acquired from any source except their husband, and may convey it and do business as if unmarried. Widow is entitled to dower of one-third in all lands owned by husband at any time during marriage, unless lawfully barred.

Mortgages are executed precisely as deeds, except the wife need not join in a purchase money mortgage to bar dower. Any conveyance, however, in whatever form, will be held a mortgage on familiar equity principles, if in reality a security for debt. If a power of sale be inserted, they may be foreclosed by advertisement. One year's redemption is allowed after sale in such cases, but the common and better practice is to foreclose by suit in circuit court, and after sale, which cannot take place until after one year's redemption; after judgment no redemption is allowed. Redemption before sale must include 10 per cent interest from date of judgment. A reasonable solicitor's fee is allowed in addition to taxed costs. No strict foreclosures allowed of mortgages. No mortgages or sale of a homestead valid unless the wife joins.

Proof of Claims Sent for Collection.—It being necessary to sue in the name of the real party in interest, creditors sending claims for collection should give their names in full. In case of a firm, full name of the individuals composing the firm should be given, and if creditor is a corporation, that fact should be stated.

Redemption.—Of lands sold under execution, one year, or by subsequent creditor, 15 months; mortgage, one year; taxes, three years.

Revivor.—Part payment or new promise in writing, if by one joint debtor, revives the debt only as to him.

Stay of Execution.—Only on justice's judgments, $10 to over $50, exclusive of costs, one to four months.

Witness.—Party in interest may be unless opponent is dead.

ANTIGO.

Population, 5,200. Was originally settled in 1876 and the town laid out by the late F. A. Deleglise. The plat was recorded in July, 1882, and it was incorporated as a city in 1885. It is the county seat of Langlade county and is located on Spring Brook river and on the C. & N. W. Ry., 150 miles southeast of Ashland, 207 northwest of Milwaukee and 292 northwest of Chicago. It is surrounded by an abundance of hard and soft wood timber lands and the clearings have been rapidly developed into a good farming country which gives permanence to the city as a commercial center. The city is lighted by electric light, has water works, fire department, wide streets that are well paved, a free public library, first-class hotels, two substantial banking institutions with ample capital, and 3 weekly newspapers—Antigo Herold (German), Antigo Journal and Republican. The churches are Baptist, Catholic, Congregational, German Evangelical, German Methodist, Lutheran and Methodist Episcopal denominations. Two parochial schools under Catholic and Lutheran management, a $25,000 high school and four ward schools constitute the public school system. Among the more prominent manufacturing interests are planing, hoop and hub mills, roller flouring mill, 2 breweries, 2 saw mills, chair factory, veneer works, hub factories, stave and heading owrks, foundry, whiffletree manufactory, iron works and the machine shops of the C. & N. W. Ry. Mail stages daily to Polar, Elton, Langlade and Markton, and tri-weekly to Morley. The shipments comprise live stock, grain, produce, lumber and manufactured products. Exp., Am. Tel., W. U. APPLETON.

Population, 15,500. Situated 185 miles north of Chicago, and 100 northwest of Milwaukee, on the Grand Chute of the Lower Fox river, is the thriving city of Appleton, the judicial seat of Outagamie county. The city is located in the south central portion of the county, on the Wisconsin and Ashland divs. of the C. & N. W. Ry., and on the C., M. & St. P. Ry. (depots adjacent). Has an electric car line to Neenah, Menasha and Kaukauna. The vast volume of water passing through the Grand Chute of Fox river from Lake Winnebago is equivalent to 16,000 horse power to utilize which dams and canals have been constructed at all the rapids on the river. The canal is under the control of the United States government and large steamers can pass from Green Bay to Lake Winnebago. The sale and lease of this water power is under the control of The Green Bay and Mississippi Canal Co. The growth of Appleton, which has now become one of the most important manufacturing points in the State, has been due, in a great measure, to this vast natural power. Fox river has 40 feet fall within the city limits. Among the more prominent manufactories are paper and pulp mills, woolen and planing mills, sash, door and blind factories, canning factory, a hub and spoke factory, breweries, flouring mill, large lime kilns, foundries and machine shops, toy and chair factories, farm implement factories, iron works, plow works, novelty works, grain elevators, 2 large chemical pulp mills, 3 wire works and screen plate works. The city has broad and well paved streets, is lighted by gas and electricity, has an electric street railway, the Holly system of water works, a well equipped and efficient fire department, 2 telephone companies, 3 banks, first-class hotels, the Lawrence University, Underwood Observatory, good schools and churches of the leading denominations. The press is represented by the Post, the Crescent (issued daily and weekly), the Volksfreund, the Montagsblatt, the Gegenwart, the Haus-Schatz, the Samstagsbate, and the Wecker (issued weekly). The city is rapidly extending, numerous buildings are being erected in both the business and residence portions, the banks are sound, real estate has never experienced a boom, but is steadily appreciating in value; the great majority of citizens own their own homes, regular employment for the wage earners at good wages is the rule, and the future outlook for Appleton is as promising as the most sanguine could wish. Tel., W. U. and Postal. Exp., Am. and U. S. M. F. Barteau, postmaster.

ASHLAND.

Population, 16,000. Is located on Chequamegon bay, an arm of Lake Superior, and one of the finest harbors on the lakes. It is the judicial seat of county of same name. It has an immense lake trade. In addition to this, it is the great railroad center of northern Wisconsin, the following lines meeting here: The C. & N. W. Ry., the C., St. P., M. & O. Ry., the N. P. R. R. and the Wis. Central. It is 40 miles from Hurley, 71 from Duluth, 165 from Eau Claire, 184 from St. Paul, and 344 from Milwaukee. The principal manufacturing interests are the Ashland Iron and Steel Works, with a plant costing over $500,000, and one of the largest charcoal blast furnaces in the world, turning out 800 tons a week. There is also an elaborate chemical plant connected with the furnace for the recovery of bi-products produced in charring wood, which are chiefly wood alcohol and acetate of lime, six saw mills, 2 planing mills, wood pulp works, 1 stave and heading factory, the machine shops of the C. & N. W. Ry., boiler works, foundries and machine shops, cigar factories, etc. The wholesale trade is represented by a number of well-established houses during a business of over $800,000 a year. There are 2 national banks—the Northern and Ashland. The insurance business is also well represented by the regular board companies, and there are a number of live and energetic real estate agents. The press is represented by two daily newspapers, the Ashland News (Dem.) and the Ashland Press (Rep.), and 4 weeklies—the News, Press, Bladet and the Chequamegon Critic. The city supports several excellent graded and primary schools, and a high school, a new one being built now at a cost of $75,000. In addition there are Roman Catholic and German parochial schools, and the North Wisconsin Academy, with $68,000 endowed. There are 2 hospitals—St. Joseph's and Rinehart's. Religious facilities are afforded by churches of the Baptist, Catholic, Congregational, Episcopal, Lutheran, Methodist, Presbyterian, Norwegian, Scandinavian and Swedish Baptist denominations. The principal secret and benevolent societies are well represented.

and the city is supplied with an excellent system of water works, a well equipped fire department, an opera house, several public halls, 2 telephone exchanges (the Wisconsin and Home), electric light and gas plants, an electric street railway and several good hotels. A handsome government building and postoffice is located here. The iron ore, the product of the Gogebic range, which is situated from 30 to 50 miles east of and tributary to Ashland, is shipped from the mines to Ashland over the Wis. Central and C. & N. W. Rys., and by vessels from their mammoth ore docks, built at a cost of nearly a million dollars. Steamers run every half hour to Washburn, and twice daily to Bayfield and Madeline island. Exp., Am., National and N. P. Tel., W. U. Samuel S. Fifield, postmaster.

BARABOO.

Population, 6,000. The judicial seat of Sauk county, is located on the C. & N. W. Ry., 119 miles from Milwaukee, 175 from Chicago, 230 from St. Paul and 40 northwest of Madison. It is headquarters for the Madison division of the Northwestern Line and the round house and machine shops for the division are located here. Some four or five hundred railroad men and division officers are residents and the amount paid them averages $35,000 monthly. The Baraboo river runs through the city and furnishes abundant power for driving numerous manufacturing establishments. The city is lighted by electricity, has water works, an efficient fire department, well paved streets, 12 churches, excellent educational institutions, an opera house, 2 banks, flour mills, canning factory, woolen mill, breweries, towel mill, planing mill, linen mill, etc. Two daily newspapers, the Evening News and the Republic, both issuing weekly editions and the Sauk County Democrat, issued weekly only, are published. Baraboo is built on a series of hills, 1,050 feet above sea level. The scenery in the vicinity is very beautiful. The famous Devil's Lake is 3 miles south and the weird and delightful dells of the Wisconsin are within a short drive. During the summer season thousands of tourists and pleasure seekers pass through here going to and from these popular resorts. Mail stages daily to Delton and Kilbourn. Tel., W. U. Exp., Am. Arthur P. Cheek postmaster.

BELOIT.

Population, 12,000. An incorporated city, located on both banks of Rock river, in Rock county, just north of the Illinois line, in the center of a rich agricultural section, 14 miles south of Janesville, the county seat, 75 southwest of Milwaukee, and 90 northwest of Chicago. It is a station on the C. & N. W. and C., M. & St. P. Rys. (depots ¼ mile apart), and also on the Rockford, Beloit & Janesville Electric Ry. The city is lighted by electricity, has an excellent system of water works, an efficient fire department, an opera house and several smaller halls, several hotels, 3 banks, good schools, and churches of the Baptist, Catholic, Christian, Congregational, Episcopal, German Presbyterian, Methodist Episcopal, Norwegian Lutheran and Presbyterian denominations. This is the seat of Beloit College, one of the best-known educational institutions in the State. Two newspapers—Free Press and News—are published. The excellent water power here obtained has been one of the main factors in the prosperity of the city. Beloit now has paper mills, automobile indicator factory, a wind mill, pump and tank factory, 3 wood working machine factories, a clutch pulley manufactory, steam and gas engine manufactory, iron works, agricultural implement works, scale factory, sash, door and blind factory, paint and carriage shops, planing mills, flour mills, machine knife factory, glove and mitten factories, overall, shirt and pants factories, shoe factory, cigar factories, etc. The products of the above factories form the principal shipments. Telephone exchange. Exp., Am. and U. S. Tel., W. U. and Postal. Chalmers Ingersoll, postmaster.

Population, 3,000. An incorporated city located on the Racine & Southwestern div. C., M. & St. P. Ry., and on the Chicago div. Wisconsin Central Ry. (depots 1 mile apart), in Racine county, at the confluence of the Fox and White rivers (which afford splendid water power), 27 miles west of Racine, 42 southwest of Milwaukee, and 72 northwest of Chicago. Its religious and educational facilities comprise Baptist, Catholic, Congregational, Episcopal, Methodist Episcopal, and 2 Lutheran churches, Lutheran and German Catholic schools, and a graded public school. Two weekly newspapers, the Free Press and the Standard Democrat, are published. Two banks are located here, and excellent hotels cater to the wants of the traveling public. The city is lighted by electricity. There is a bonded debt of $15,000, which was voted in order to put in a water plant, and water is now secured from an artesian well, whose analysis proves stronger than the famous Waukesha water. The more important industries are a large flour mill, a malt house, brick and tile works, waterproof fabric factory, a planing mill, a sorghum factory, a horse blanket manu-

IMPROVED AND UNIMPROVED FARM AND HARDWOOD TIMBER LANDS.
WHOLESALE AND RETAIL.

OUR FACILITIES FOR HANDLING REAL ESTATE OF ALL KINDS ARE UNSURPASSED.

We travel extensively throughout the state and are thus enabled to come in contact with REAL BARGAINS. Each of our solicitors upon listing a property for sale, or noting the wants of a prospective purchaser, immediately forwards such data to our main office, where duplicates are issued and sent to all of our agents. The system of combined efforts, being original with us, places us in a superior position to accomplish quick sales. For instance, where one of our solicitors makes a good listing and does not succeed in finding a customer, another agent at some other point finds the prospective purchaser. Thus we are of material assistance to both buyer and seller, on cash or trade deals. We furnish land seekers tickets and accompany intending buyers.

Parties buying property through our company are assured of perfect title.

Our success is due to push, energy and reliability. Write for descriptive circular.

CHIPPEWA FALLS.

Population, 10,500. The judicial seat of Chippewa county, is an incorporated city, located on the Chippewa river, on the Chippewa div. of the C., M. & St. P. Ry., the Duluth line of the Northern div. C., St. P., M. & O. Ry., and the Wisconsin & St. P. divs. and Eau Claire br. Wisconsin Central, 12 miles north of Eau Claire, 104 east of St. Paul, and 358 northwest of Chicago. The E., C. C., F. & N. E. Ry. is building new line extension from this point, 75 miles northeast. It is also connected with Eau Claire by an interurban electric car service which runs hourly between the two places. The city is lighted by electricity, has an excellent system of sewerage, a paid fire department, and electric fire alarm system and free mail delivery. The water works system of the city was laid in 1885 and affords a splendid fire protection and excellent water for private consumption. The supply is obtained from a system of springs located about two miles east of the city, on the Chippewa river. There are twelve churches, seven ward schools, and a handsome and commodious high school building, a fine court house and jail, city buildings, many fine business structures and costly residences, a hospital, with 120 beds, 3 banks, good hotels, a Carnegie library costing $30,000, and a new Union Depot of C., M. & St. P. and Wisconsin Central costing about $20,000. Two daily newspapers—Herald and Independent—and 3 weeklies, Times, Herald, Catholic Sentinel—are published. The new county asylum, located just outside the city limits, is now completed at a cost of over $50,000, and is a handsome and imposing structure. The Home for the Feeble-Minded, 3 miles southeast of the city which originally cost $300,000, has been added to and improved within the last two years to the extent of $150,000, and a further appropriation of $100,000 is asked from the state. The water power afforded by the Chippewa river affords unrivaled facilities for manufacturing enterprises; Duncan creek empties into the Chippewa river within the city limits, affording additional facilities for manufacturing. Among the more prominent industries are the flouring mills and elevator of the Consolidated Milling Elevator and Power Co. (capacity 350 barrels per day), sash, door and blind factories, canning factory, foundry and machine shop, brewery, woolen mills, planing mills, 4 shoe factories, a large beet sugar factory, a shirt factory, 2 brick yards, a glove factory, 6 creameries, one of the largest lumber mills in the world, with a capacity of 60,000,000 feet per season. 5 cigar factories, etc. The general offices of the Chippewa Lumber and Boom Co., Chippewa Logging Co., Chippewa River Improvement and Log Driving Co., and the Mississippi River Logging Co., are located here, and large sums of money are disbursed by them in the payment of wages, materially aiding the business of the city. The city is surrounded by a rich farming country, and within easy access are immense tracts of hardwood lumber for manufacturing purposes, while the natural healthfulness of the climate and the excellent water supply renders Chippewa Falls a most desirable residence city. Tel., W. U. Exp., Am., U. S. and National. H. J. Goddard, postmaster.

CORLISS.

Population, 700. Formerly known as Western Union Junction, is located on the C., M. & St. P. Ry., in Mt. Pleasant township, Racine county, 7½ miles west of Racine, the county seat and 22 from Milwaukee. About three years ago the town site was a tract of farming land. The town has since been laid out and a number of factories, hotels, business houses and residences have already been erected. The advantages for business are good, shipping facilities of the best, a fine farming country surrounding the town and a most healthful locality make it desirable for business and residence. The principal industry is the Brown-Corliss Engine Co., one of the most prosperous in its line in the country. The company expects to have at least 500 employes the present year. The town has gas and electric light plants and a fine system of water works. The C., M. & St. P. Ry. run trains almost hourly between here and Racine, and give special rates between this point and Milwaukee. Anyone interested in a location for business or residence can obtain further information by addressing W. S. Whiting, president Brown-Corliss Engine Co., or C. H. Hesser, secretary Corliss Improvement Co. Tel., W. U. Exp., U. S. Telephone connection. J. W. Simmons, postmaster.

EAU CLAIRE.

Population, 19,000. Is a flourishing city, beautifully located on both sides of the Chippewa and Eau Claire rivers and on the C., St. P., M & O., the C., M. & St. P. and C., St. P. & M. Rys., in the central portion of western Wisconsin. It is the seat of justice of the county bearing the same name and is 321 miles northwest of Chicago and 84 east of St. Paul. Its name is of French derivation and signifies clear water. The main portion of the city is about 31 feet above low water mark of the Chippewa river, the latter is 180 feet above Lake Michigan, which in turn is 589 feet above the level of the sea. The chief water power is supplied by the dam across the Chippewa river, having 18 feet head, and two dams on the Eau Claire river supply the linen and other mills with power. The Eau Claire river flows into the Chippewa river at this point. These rivers, spanned by good bridges, are studded with numerous manufacturing institutions, consisting principally of large saw mills, 2 foundries, a pulp and a paper mill, a refrigerator factory, a linen mill, 2 furniture factories, a fruit canning establishment, 3 shoe factories, a box factory, 2 breweries and a pork packing house. Eau Claire has an electric fire alarm system and 4 hose houses as a part of its fire department, which is maintained at an expense of $30,000 a year. It has first-class hotels, an opera house costing $60,000 and having a seating capacity of 1,200, 4 public parks, a good sewerage system, paved streets, fine school buildings, including a high school costing $90,000, a hospital under the care of the Sisters of Mercy, a free public library, an excellent street railway system having interurban connection with the city of Chippewa Falls, 12 miles north. Midway between these two cities is Lake Hallie, a summer restort with attractive surroundings. A noted characteristic of the climate is its dry, pure atmosphere, which for healthfulness is unexcelled and is favorable to those affected with pulmonary troubles. The soil is porous and the street grades are good, yet not precipitous, which gives the city unsurpassed natural drainage. There is an abundant supply of excellent water. The Chippewa river is the second largest river in the state. Its great valley proffers a great and readily accessible supply of various kinds of hardwood for manufacturing purposes, much of which undoubtedly will be made tributary to Eau Claire in the future. In recent years many valuable and substantial improvements, both public and private, have been made. Among recent manufacturing enterprises that have been established in the city are the Cirkel Manufacturing Company, making staves and barrel heads, the Eau Claire Box and Lumber Co., the Ritchie-Clark Co., makers of compressible beds; the McLaren & Musson Shoe Company and the C. P. Larson Shoe Company. Notable recent improvements are a substantial iron bridge across the Chippewa river costing $40,000, an arch bridge across the Eau Claire river costing $30,000, a Carnegie library building costing $40,000 and numerous fine residences. A new addition to its railway facilities is the Chippewa Valley & Northeastern Railway, an extenson of the Omaha system from Chippewa Falls northward.

With the gradual passing of the lumber industry, the city nevertheless, has held its own population, while it has greatly improved in other respects, showing a degree of vitality, which with the development of North Wisconsin, much of which is tributary to the city, gives assurance of a permanent and hopeful future. The Eau Claire Business Men's Association is a useful auxiliary in the promotion of the city's progress and will furnish all necessary information to interested parties. Exp., Am., National and U. S. Tel., W. U. Local and long distance telephone facilities. George W. Smith, postmaster.

FOND DU LAC.

Population, 16,000. Is located at the southern extremity of Lake Winnebago, in Fond du Lac county, of which it is the county seat, 63 miles northwest of Milwaukee and 148 northwest of Chicago. It possesses transportation facilities unequalled by any city of its size in the State. It has communication by water through Lake Winnebago, down the Fox river and thence into Green Bay, connecting it with the whole chain of lakes. It is on the C. & N. W., the C., M. & St. P. and Wis. Central Rys., which radiating to all parts of the United States, give it all the advantages of its western sister cities in the sale of its manufactures in the eastern markets, the competition afforded by the steamboat lines being instrumental in regulating and reducing rates. This city was one of the pioneer lumbering towns of the State, and, although the supply of pine has been exhausted, there is a large quantity of valuable hardwood timber in the vicinity which is now being utilized for manufacturing purposes. The city has foundries and machine shops, plow works, carriage and wagon factories, tent and awning factory, shirt and overall factory, refrigerator, sash, door and blind factories, large lumber mills, molding and frame factories, boiler works, mattress factory, planing mills, canning factory, breweries, file works, furniture factories, box factories, drug mill, one of the largest tannery and leather manufactories in the country, and manufactories of saw mill machinery, creamery supplies, cigars, brooms, patent medicines, bicycles, etc. There are 4 banks, an $85,000 court house, first-class hotels, opera house, water works, efficient police and fire departments, electric lights, a public library, churches of the leading religious denominations, excellent public and private schools, handsome business blocks and private residences and all the facilities and appointments of a first-class city. The press is represented by the Commonwealth and News and the Reporter (daily), and 3 weeklies, the Saturday Reporter, the Weekly Commonwealth and the Nordwestlicher Courier and Daheim. Grafton Hall, a young ladies' school, was enlarged by a handsome stone building costing $50,000 and recently $20,000 more has been expended in improvements. St. Agnes Hospital and Sanitarium, one of the best appointed in the State, was erected at a cost of $40,000 and occupies the ground adjoining St. Agnes convent. Among the great advantages possessed by Fond du Lac is its pure, soft, deep fountain water which is considered the equal of the famous Bethesda spring. Exp., Am., National and U. S. Tel., Postal and W. U. Frank M. Givens, postmaster.

GRAND RAPIDS.

Population, 5,000. The judicial seat of Wood county, is an incorporated city, situated on the G. B. & W., C. M. & St. P., Wisconsin Central and C. & N. W. railways and on the Wisconsin river. The city contains three banks, five fine school buildings, and Methodist, Catholic, Congregational, Episcopal, Moravian and Lutheran churches. Has a free public library containing 6,000 volumes, opera house, city hall, court house and jail. Sustains two fire companies, one on each side of the river, and the entire city is covered with water works system. The city has three newspapers, the Grand Rapids Tribune, Wood County Reporter and Wisconsin Valley Leader. There are numerous paper mills tributary to the city, power for which is furnished by the Wisconsin river, while numerous industries are situated within the city proper, among which are a hub, spoke and wagon factory, furniture factory, pulp mill, table factory, saw mills, box factory, flour mill, foundry and machine shop, brewery, cooperage, pickle salting station, etc. Has a local co-operative telephone company and electric light and power company, and has also connections with the Wisconsin Telephone Company, the American Telegraph and Telephone Company and the Western Union Telegraph. Has the American, National and U. S. express companies. A. L. Fontaine, postmaster.

Machinists, Foundrymen and Contractors

Manufacturers of Gears, Pulleys, Pillow Boxes, Couplings and Special Machinery of All Kinds.

Good Grey Iron Castings our Pride.

We also make and sell the Famous

"Roenius PATENTED Wood and Coal Chute."

If you are going to build be sure to write us for Catalogue and Prices.

See Next Page for Further Information.

Notice how convenient for coal, also how cover stands up alone and protects your building.

SIZE AND CONSTRUCTION OF CHUTE.

WE make chutes in two sizes, one is 18 inches in diameter and 36 inches long for residence, and one 26 inches in diameter and 36 inches long for larger buildings. The body is made of heavy sheet steel, well riveted, the cover and ring are cast iron, correctly proportioned for strength and beauty. This construction makes a strong, neat job, as well as being light and easily handled. The outside cover is locked by a steel hook which is made and fastens in such a way that the hook can be easily unhooked from the inner end of the chute, and at the same time cannot be shaken to unlock from outside. Besides this we furnish another cover for the inner end of chute. This cover helps keep out the cold and makes chute absolutely burglar proof.

REASONS WHY THIS CHUTE SHOULD BE USED.

IT does away with the many objections of throwing your wood and coal in through a window or door. You all know how unpleasant and how slow it is to open a window frozen with sleet and ice, or one that is swollen or warped, to say nothing of how many window lights are broken by your wood and coal man. How many beautiful homes one sees with the window sash and house all battered up and black. Our coal chute does away with this.

The body of chute, being smooth, allows fuel to slide down easily.
The chute looks neat and needs no care nor cleaning.
It admits no heat to escape. Will last a life time.
Is absolutely burglar proof. Easily installed.
Can be used as perfect ventilator. Cost of chute very small.
It will soon save the price of a door and many a window.
Is a useful, durable article that saves you time, trouble and money.

Farmers use it, as it makes a very good vegetable chute, it being smooth does not mar the vegetables and being steel will not rot.

If you have your walls started by the time this circular reaches you leave space open and order chute at once.

Also bear in mind that it is not a difficult task to cut a hole into an old wall and install chute.

To prove to you what people think of this chute where it has once been introduced, we wish to say that last season we sold over 50 chutes in one city of but 5,000 people, many putting them in old houses.

We don't deem it necessary to quote any references in order to convince you that we are offering you a good, common sense article something you will never regret buying; however should you desire it, we will gladly refer you to many people who have our chute in use.

If your hardware dealer does not handle our chute, kindly write us for price and any information you might wish to ask. Remember our chute is the lightest, cheapest and best. Best recommendation we have is that we sold 600 the past or first year on the market. Remember the address,

GREEN BAY.

Population, 19,000. Is located at the confluence of Fox and East rivers, at the foot of Green Bay, in Brown county, of which it is the county seat, 113 miles north of Milwaukee, 198 north of Chicago, 185 northeast of Madison, and 49 northeast of Oshkosh. It is situated on both sides of the Fox river, which is spanned by five bridges. It was first settled in 1668 by French missionaries and traders, and is the oldest settlement in the state. It became a U. S. garrison in 1816, received a village charter in 1838, and a city charter in 1854. Brown county was organized in 1826, when the county seat was located at De Pere, but it was removed to Green Bay a few years later. The vicinity has developed into one of the finest agricultural and grazing districts in the State. The business of raising blooded horses—Norman Percheron—from stock imported has been largely engaged in, both for home and other markets. Exceptional transportation facilities are offered by the C., M. & St. P. Ry., the C. & N. W. Ry. (depots ½ mile apart on opposite sides of river), the K., G. B. & W. Ry., and the G. B. & W. R. R.

251 LAKE ST. Milwaukee, Wis. (See page 3.)

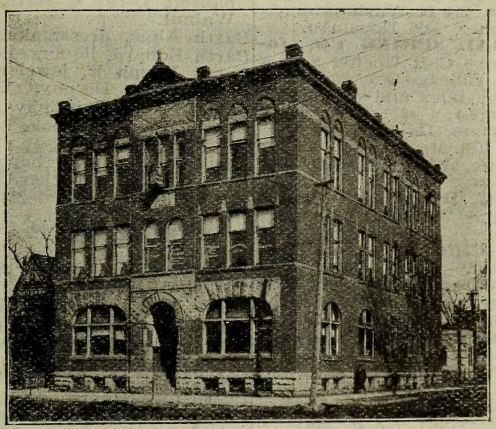
The city is the terminus of the Goodrich Transportation Co.'s line of steamers, giving two regular boats per week from Chicago and Milwaukee. Hart's Steamboat Line, owned by a local company, run three splendid passenger boats, furnishing a daily line between here and Mackinac and intermediate ports, including Sturgeon Bay, Marinette, Menominee, Escanaba, Fayette, Nahma and Garden Bay, and connecting with passenger steamers for lower lake ports. Another line of large freighting steamers, the Lackawanna Green Bay Line, plies between here and Buffalo. The city enjoys a large wholesale trade in groceries, drugs, crockery, fish and other articles. There are four large breweries, manufacturing beer which is shipped to great distances, large foundries, planing mills, 3 paper mills, Diamond Match Co. Mills, 2 furniture factories, 2 box factories, and many other manufacturing concerns. Four sound and reliable banks, with an aggregate capital of $400,000, have universal confidence. The hotels are exceptionally fine and numerous, while two popular summer resorts serve as pleasant diversion for citizens and guests. Several mineral springs located here are becoming famous for the curative virtues of their waters, which are shipped bottled and in bulk, and in the form of various pleasant drinks, to all surrounding places. The city is supplied with the purest of water for domestic uses and esxtinguishment of fires by first-class water works, drawing their supply from artesian wells about 1,000 feet deep. The leading newspapers are the Green Bay Gazette (daily and semi-weekly), Green Bay Advocate (tri-weekly), Der Landsman (German weekly), and the Green Bay Review (Republican weekly), all of which have a large circulation through the State. The educational facilities are the very best. The public schools are of a very high character. One of the leading educational institutions of Green Bay is the Green Bay Business College, which was established in the year 1868, which is a fair criterion of the poularity of the institution, it being the only institution of this kind in the State of Wisconsin that owns its own building, which was erected exclusively for college purposes, it being one of Green Bay's finest public buildings. The training that is given a pupil at this institution covers the entire business field, the concise way in which the work is laid out is both a pride to the professor and the graduating scholar. The main point in view is to make the pupil proficient in all the practical details of business life, the college being equipped with a complete banking department, which gives the pupil each minute detail of the principles of banking.



GREEN BAY BUSINESS COLLEGE

In connection with the diversified branches is a complete course in general railroad practice, which qualifies a pupil for all branches of the work. The field of the commission business is also covered in a practical way, the shorthand department being fully equipped with the best instructors that money can procure, the popular Gregg method being in vogue. Penmanship is a justly important branch of the institution, neatness and detail being looked after in every branch. The office discipline is such that it gives the pupil the most minute detail of office work, neatness and accuracy being one of the essential points. In fact, it is one of Wisconsin's leading educational institutions. There are also numerous parochial schools, under Catholic and Lutheran management. The cathedral and bishop's residence of the Catholic See of Green Bay is located here, also a Catholic orphan asylum and an Odd Fellows' home. There are 24

HAYWARD AS A SUMMER RESORT.

HAYWARD is the largest town on the C. St. P. M. & O. Ry. between Hudson and Ashland. It has 2500 inhabitants and is an up-to-date town, having water works, sewer, electric lights, telephone system and paved streets. Hayward has a fine hostelry in the Giblin Hotel, which is the headquarters for all parties visiting this section of the country. The hotel is electric lighted throughout, neatly furnished, steam heated, has hot and cold water and the menu is of the best. Numerous lakes reached from Hayward afford the best of fishing and game is plentiful. The country is, as yet, sparsely settled and an almost virgin field is offered to the sportsman.

The Nama-Kagon River on which the town is located and all its tributaries, among which are the Mosquito Creek, McDermott Brook, Big Brook, Beam Brook and the Mackey Branch are good trout streams. These streams are all within a short distance of the town and may be visited during the day, returning to Hayward in the evening. Anyone wishing to spend a few days catching the speckled beauties will make no mistake in coming to Hayward.

A GOOD DAYS WORK.

Those wishing to catch muskellunge, bass, pike, etc., can be accommodated at any of the summer resorts on the different lakes which are easily reached by team.

SMITH LAKE, three miles north of Hayward contains bass, crappies and pickerel.

ROUND LAKE, eight miles east of Hayward is abundantly supplied with small mouth black bass, lake trout and pike.

TWIN LAKES, two miles further on afford muskellunge and bass fishing.

SPIDER LAKE, about fourteen miles east of Hayward is famous for its excellent muskellunge fishing. Black bass and other varieties of fish are also plentiful.

TEAL LAKE and LOST LAND LAKE, are about twenty miles east of Hayward and afford unusually fine sport in muskellunge and bass fishing.

About five miles beyond Lost Land Lake is Ghost Lake and the Chippewa River. The dam in the Chippewa River at this point is a good fishing ground for large muskellunge. Ghost Lake and the Chippewa Dam are not very frequently visited but parties who choose to make the trip are invariably successful in remarkable catches both as to size of fish and numbers.

BASS LAKE, six miles south of Hayward is an excellent bass fishing ground.

GRINDSTONE LAKE, eight miles south is a large beautiful lake well supplied with muskellunge and bass.

Lac Court O'Reilles Lake, twelve miles south of Hayward, is the largest body of water in Sawyer County, having ninety miles of shore line. The following club houses are located on shores of this lake: The Shaw, The Hayden, The Chicago and The Ashland. At Court O'Reilles village is a hotel for accommodation of the public. The lake contains muskellunge, pike and bass.

Sand Lake, White Fish Lake, Sissabagamo and Flat Lake are all within fifteen miles south-west of Hayward and offer fine muskellunge, bass and pike fishing.

For parties going camping, there are in additon to the above lakes, Little Chief Lake. Tyner Lake and Totogatic Lake and many others, but at these lakes there are no accommodations. The fisherman who visits Hayward never fails to make excellent catches at any of these lakes and in addition to the exhiliration of having a "time" with the bass, muskellunge and trout, the rugged scenery and pine scented air will refresh the tired mind and body.

Excellent livery can be secured at Hayward and accommodations, boats, bait, guides, etc., will be found at most of the lakes. Although these stopping places are not palatial affairs, comfort is assured and good meals are provided.

Rates at different resorts, arrangements for fishing trips and in fact anything you want to know about this "fishing paradise" will be gladly furnished upon application to first settled in 1835, incorporated in 1853, and made the seat of justice of Rock county in 1839. It is 91 miles northwest of Chicago, and 71 southwest of Milwaukee. Janesville is on the Janesville and Afton branches of the Madison div., the Chicago & Janesville and Janesville & Green Bay lines of the Wisconsin div. of the Chicago & Northwestern Railway, which also has its machine shops located at this point, and is on the main line and Beloit line of the Mineral Point div. of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Ry. (depots 50 yards apart). Is also on the Beloit, Delavan Lake & Janesville Electric Railway. The shipping joint facilities are among the best in the State, a system of side tracks being laid to the door of nearly every manufacturing establishment. The city is provided with fine water power afforded by Rock river. A first-class system of water works and an efficient fire department are ample security against fire. The city has gas and electric light works, electric street car lines, fire alarm telegraph, and 4 banks. Prominent among its benevolent institutions are two hospitals. Janesville will compare favorably with other cities of like population in the number, variety and quality of its places of religious worship. It has 13 church edifices, owned and occupied by the various Christian denominations. It has a free public library, excellent public schools, a Catholic school (St. Joseph's Convent), and a German Lutheran school. Tobacco raising, now one of the leading industries of Rock county, is of immense value to the city, and has given rise to the establishment of numerous wholesale and jobbing houses in leaf tobacco. The manufactures, which are extensive, comprise the following: Cotton mills, woolen mills, several flour and feed mills, agricultural implement works, sugar factory, furniture factories, knitting works, planing mills, breweries, carriage and wagon works, cigar, lumber and box factories, 2 shoe factories, machine shops, 3 fountain pen manufactories, a blank book manufactory, and many more too numerous to mention. The press is represented by the Gazette (daily and semi-weekly), the Recorder and Times (daily and weekly), the Journal (weekly), and the Independent (weekly). Telephone connection. Exp., Am. and U. S. Tel., W. U. and Postal. O. F. Nowlan, postmaster.

JEFFERSON.

Population, 2,800. An incorporated city and popular smmer resort on the C. & N. W. Ry., at the confluence of the Rock and Crawford rivers, in Jefferson county, of which it is the judicial seat, 13 miles south of Watertown, 45 west of Milwaukee, and 116 northeast of Chicago. It is the trade center for a rich agricultural section, is lighted by electricity, has excellent public schools, a convent, churches of the Catholic, Episcopal, Methodist and Universalist denominations, 2 banks, first-class hotels, etc. Five weekly newspapers—The Jefferson Banner (German and English editions), the Jefferson County Journal, the Daheim, and the Jefferson County Record are published. The city has a good system of water works and is protected from fire by a well-equipped fire department. The County Asylum for Insane is located here. There are 2 breweries, a tannery, 2 shoe factories, 2 creameries, chair factory, planing mill, flour mill, wagon and agricultural implement factory, brick and tile works, etc. Telephone connection. Exp., Am. Tel., W. U. George J. Kispert, postmaster.

251 LAKE ST. Milwaukee, Wis. (See page 3.)

Wis. div. C. & N. W. Ry., in Kenosha county, of wihch it is the county seat, 33 miles south of Milwaukee, and 51 north of Chicago. It was incorporated as the village of Southport in 1841, which name was changed to Kenosha in 1850, when is received a city charter. It has one of the finest harbors on the lake, and its marine shipping facilities are destined to have a very large growth. Already some of the best lake craft are owned here, and its great natural advantages are attracting the attention of manufacturers. There are 16 churches representing the leading religious denominations, and the city has exceptional educational facilities. There are first-class public schools, with a thoroughly equipped high school building and an efficient corps of teachers, and the Simmons Memorial Library, one of the finest in the state. Kemper Hall, a school for girls, under the charge of the Sisters of St. Mary, is situated in the midst of attractive grounds, the location being remarkably healthful and retired. There are banks, an opera house, court house and city hall, a daily newspaper, the Evening News, and 3 weeklies, Telegraph-Courier, Union and Volksfreund. The city enjoys a fine system of water works, which, with the aid of a thoroughly equipped fire department, renders it safe from a serious conflagration. Kenosha's factory facilities are second to none and she has on her list the largest tannery and the largest iron bed works in the world, wagon factories and brass works, a bed spring factory, a furniture factory automobile factory, several machine shops, etc. Is connected with Racine and Milwaukee by electric railway. Exp., Am. Tel., W. U. and Postal. Chas. Frantz, postmaster.

KEWAUNEE.

Population, 1,900. The county seat of Kewaunee county, is located on the K., G. B. & W. R. R., and on the shore of Lake Michigan at the mouth of the Kewaunee river, 36 miles east of Green Bay. It has lines of boats connecting with Frankfort and Ludington, Mich., forming a through line from the west to the Atlantic coast, and by which whole trains of cars are transported across Lake Michigan. It has one of the finest and most accessible harbors on the lake, which is being constantly improved by the government and present plans are to convert it into a harbor of refuge. A life saving station has been erected. The city has Catholic, Congregational and Lutheran churches, excellent educational advantages, a bank, canning factory, planing mills, coffin manufactory, foundries and machine shops, breweries, agricultural implement factory and saw and shingle mill machinery plant, owned and operated by Frank Hamachek (one of the leading manufacturing plants in this section), and a casket factory. Three newspapers—Enterprise, Banner, Kewaunee Listy—are published. Stages daily to surrounding points. Communication is had during the entire year by boat with all lake ports. Exp., U. S. Tel., W. U. Joseph J. Schultz, postmaster.

PEA HARVESTING MACHINERY,

Portable and Stationary Saw Mills, Shingle Mills, Cheesebox and Wood Sawing Machinery. Drag Saws and Circular Saws.

A complete line of Fly-wheel and Cylinder Fodder Cutters for hand and power use. They are the only machines in the market in which the feed rollers are under full control of the operator.

The Giant Feed Mill is fully covered by Letters Patent in the United States, Canada, England, Belgium, France, Germany and Austria. It is manufactured in different sizes ranging in capacity from ten to a hundred bushels of grain per hour.

"This mill is so constructed as it to make it impossible for the face of the burrs to touch each other even when entirely empty. It has, on this account, an important advantage over all the others as no energy is lost through friction of the burrs upon themselves. The GIANT runs much stiller than the others tried on the account stated, and the life of the burrs must be proportionally lengthened."

LA CROSSE.

Population, 35,000. The judicial seat of county of same name, is an important, progressive city situated at the confluence of the La Crosse and Black rivers with the Mississippi. Its transportation facilities are unexcelled. The La Crosse div. of the C., M. & St. P. Ry. places it in direct communication with Chicago. The Southern Minnesota, Dubuque and River divisions of the same road open a highway through Iowa, Minnesota and the Dakotas and the Wisconsin Valley and Chippewa Valley divisions afford access to the pine and hardwood regions of Wisconsin. The C. & N. W. Ry., with its various divisions, develop extensive territory. The G. B. & W. R. R. brings La Crosse in contact with lake navigation, over 200 miles nearer tide water than Chicago. The C., B. & Q. R. R. traverses the territory on the east bank of the Mississippi, as those already mentioned occupy the west, and the Father of Waters itself, during the season of navigation, is an important factor in the problem. The La Crosse & Southeastern Electric Ry., now under construction will bring La Crosse into more direct communication with Vernon, Crawford and Richland counties. The site of the original city was surveyed in 1842, but it was not incorporated until 1856. For years the staple industry was the manufacture of lumber, a business which is still carried on to a large extent. The increase is shown more in the extension of the new manufacturing industries, and this steady growth has been owing more to the capital and enterprise of its own citizens than adventitious introduction from without. In addition to its saw mills, there are large foundries, machine shops, boiler works and marine ways, ladies garment factory, tobacco warehouses, large packing houses, glove, mattress, box, cigar, cigar box, candy, cracker, soap, furniture, broom, vinegar, boot and shoe, confectionery, trunk and package factories, 3 button factories, 2 knitting works, the best equipped carriage works in the state, sash, door and blind factories, a large tannery, rubber clothing factory, tool works, granite and marble works, electrical instrument manufactories, woolen mills, rattan works, iron works, brick yards; it has 5 large breweries, 8 cooperages, and its flour mills have a daily capacity of 2,500 barrels; there are also several works for the manufacture of plows and other agricultural implements. La Crosse also carries on an extensive jobbing business, having for a market Western Wisconsin, Northern Iowa, Southern Minnesota, and the States of North and South Dakota. The city owns its own water works, is lighted by electricity, has a well-disciplined and well-equipped paid fire department, the most substantial and convenient school buildings, and the most efficient system of public schools that can be found anywhere. There is an elegant and commodious city building, a free library and a new $150,000 court house. The city possesses great attractions for residence; it is well paved, well watered—the residence portion beautifully platted and well kept; its educational advantages are kept up to a high standard, and Oak Grove Cemetery, with its wealth of floral decorations, will compare favorably with those of the largest cities. It has 50 churches, an opera house and several music halls, and these in connection with several social and literary societies, adequately administer to the religious, mental and moral cravings of the inhabitants. There are 3 daily newspapers, the Leader-Press, the Morning Chronicle and the Abend Stern, all of which issue semi-weekly editions. The weekly papers are the Argus, the Nordstern, the Vlastenec (Bohemian), and the Volksfreund. There are several first-class hotels, among which may be mentioned the Stoddard (just completed at a cost of $350,000 for building and furnishing), Cameron House, Hotel Grand, Hotel La Crosse, and the Hotel Law. Stages daily to Brinkman, Coon Valley, Esofea and Viroqua. Telephone connections. Tel., W. U. and Postal. Exp., Adams, Am. and U. S. W. B. Tscharner, postmaster.

GATES COUNTY, WIS.

Fine Hardwood Timber Lands, with enough Timber and Wood to pay for the land and clearing it.

THE GREAT DAIRY REGION OF NORTHERN WISCONSIN.

We help the poor man, not only when he buys but after he has bought, to purchase stock and put him in good shape to keep going after he gets started.

With the man who has only $150 to $200, we sell him 80 acres, giving him easy terms on the remainder, provided he moves on the land at once and begins improving it. Unimproved timber lands from $10 to $16 per acre. Improved lands from $15 to $25 per acre. Write us for our folder which explains everything.

Reduced rates to land seekers.
